A suburban hub with a metropolitan buzz

EYRE ST. MARKET IS STRATEGICALLY LOCATED ON EYRE STREET KINGSTON, INNER SOUTH CANBERRA

Kingston was established in mid 1920's and has become one of Canberra's most popular spots for a bite to eat, a coffee or a special night out and it is also home to some of our most unique arts precincts. Located in close proximity is Canberra Glassworks which is Australia's only cultural centre dedicated to contemporary glass art, hosting a range of exhibitions, tours, and hands-on experiences. Some of Canberra's best sporting action is held at Manuka Oval; the heritage listed Manuka Pool – and all this is within a 700 metre walk of Eyre St. Market.

In close proximity to Canberra Grammer schools, Telopea Park School, Narrabundah College, St. Edmunds College and St. Claires College, with excellent transport accessibility.

The lifestyle of a suburb is often influenced by who lives there.

Kingston represents a strong demographic profile with household income above the ACT median rate which in turn is well above the national rate. Kingston and surrounding suburbs are considered to accommodate a high proportion of residential unit accommodation and prestige housing with inner south Canberra traditionally being a sought after location.

Unemployment is low which is typical of the ACT and strong public sector employment rate which may be seen to offer a more secure employment base and relatively strong income.

Kingston is considered to accommodate a wide variety of housing types relative to some other areas of the ACT.

The ACT Government's Kingston Centre Vision depicts Kingston Centre as 'a vibrant, diverse village where the existing character is respected while responding to changing needs'.

The median weekly personal income in Kingston is 54.8% higher than the ACT average

POPULATION

Canberra experienced the largest population growth of any state or territory over the past five years, adding more than 40,000 new residents – an increase of +11.2% (357,218 to 397,397)

TAKE HOME WAGE

Canberra's median personal weekly take home wage was $998 – the highest in the country.

Kingston's median personal weekly income was even higher at $1,545
